JEWELRY STORE ROBBERED.

The jewelry store of V. A. Crow was entered about 3 o'clock Sunday morning by a burglar or burglars and quite a lot of jewelry stolen.

Entrance to the establishment was effected by prizing open the rear door. A pinch bar and a very much heavier bar were left behind. The pinch bar was used in breaking in, and both the door and the door facing shows that the miscreants met with considerable difficulty in forcing an entrance. However, had the smaller bar proved ineffectual in forcing the door, the thieves had provided themselves with a much heavier one with which to accomplish their purpose.

While Mr. Crow has not as yet been able to accurately determine his loss, goods thus far missing will carry the amount between $400 and $500, set rings and watches constituting the principal items taken. That the thieves were somewhat nervous and hurried in their work is evidenced by their overlooking many articles of value that were easily accessible. Mr. Crow gives it as his opinion that but one man entered the store, and he not remaining more than fifteen minutes, while his confederate stood watch on the outside.

The only clue to the identity of the thieves is that the night watchman saw two Mexicans jump on the rear of an east-bound freight train about the time of the robbery. As this train was to sidetrack at the Quilhi siding for the Jitney, it was possible for them to leave the train at that point, if in reality they were the perpetrators of the robbery. So far no arrests have been made.

Mr. Crow carried no burglary insurance, consequently the loss falls rather heavily on him.

JACK FUSSELMAN HURT.

Jack Fusselman was severely hurt Monday afternoon about five miles out from San Antonio by being struck by a milk truck. Mr. Fusselman, accompanied by his son-in-law, Newell Woolls, was en route home from a business trip to San Antonio and had stopped for some purpose, and had alighted from his truck when struck by the milk truck. He was knocked down, the wheels of the truck passing over his chest, while glass from the windshield cut a bad gash in his face, and he was otherwise injured.

An ambulance was called from San Antonio and he was carried to a hospital in the city and was placed under the care of physicians. An X-Ray Tuesday failed to disclose any broken bones, and Wednesday physicians gave Mrs. Fusselman, who was called to San Antonio Monday night, permission to bring him home and he arrived on Wednesday afternoon's train, and is now at his home here. While his condition is still somewhat critical there is but little doubt that he will recover from his injuries.

A. D. Jackson, Publicity Secretary of the Texas Experiment Stations,

A. S. Ware, Secretary, L. J. McCall, Superintendent of the Feeding and Breeding Station, all of College Station, and R. B. Dunn, an oil man from Bryan, were visitors to Hondo over night Tuesday while enroute from College Station to Mr. Jackson's old stamping grounds in Zavala county to enjoy a hunt. While Mr. McCall enjoyed a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. McCall, the other gentlemen were callers at this office. Mr. Jackson was formerly in the newspaper business at Crystal City, having pioneered in establishing the old Chronicle at that place when the town was merely a wide expanse of untamed chaparral. For several years he has filled his present responsible position with the State Experiment Stations.

Hugo A. Schweers, the Barred Rock chicken breeder, takes advantage of our clubbing offer to secure Farming and the Lone Star Poultry Journal both for the price of one—$1.00. If every chicken fancier in the country would do that we would soon have a big circulation for Farming and the chicken fanciers would save money on their reading matter.

D. W. Short was a business caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Short has posted his ranch in the northern part of the county.

Edison Company Orders Fleet After Thorough Test of Car.

Los Angeles, Nov. 4.—The Southern California Edison Company recently purchased five Overland Four touring cars and sent them to their plant at Taft, California for the purpose of giving them a thorough test.

The instructions sent with the cars were "use 'em rough. Wreck them if possible in the hardest kind of service."

The company's mechanics, after about a month of gruelling tests, returned with the cars to Los Angeles after putting them through the roughest use they could think of and reported that it is impossible to wreck them.

On the showing and after listening to the reports of their mechanics, the Southern California Edison Company ordered a fleet of the Overland Fours and are now operating 22 in all.

It will be noted that several more names have been added to the membership of the Medina Game Protective Association. This association is thus showing a substantial growth, and no doubt but what by another season will practically include all land owners in the county, as it is proving its worth every day in practical results.

J. B. Hurt was exhibiting some pecans this week that grew from trees set five years ago. The nuts are of the Stewart variety and are exceptionally large, fine nuts. Mr. Hurt is so convinced of the adaptability of this variety that he is planning to make a large planting this season.

CATHOLIC BAZAAR.

The ladies of the Catholic church are making preparations for their annual bazaar, which will be held on December 16. As usual, a great and varied assortment of useful and ornamental articles will be offered for sale. Dinner will also be served.

BIRY NEWS.
The B. H. Society entertained with a program Friday evening from 3 to 4. Those present were: Mesdames Adolph Eichhorn, Jess Heath, Emil Biry, Frank Biry; Misses Goldie Bilhartz, Dovie Watson; and Emmet and Everett Nixon.

Louis Rihn and sons, Fritz and Ferdinand, Aaron Bilhartz, Guy Burnett, Ralph Bilhartz and Ed. Burnett were among those who attended the community fair at Yancey. They report an enjoyable time.

Parties are popular in Biry. Biry is on a social boom. Two parties in one week! The Heaths entertained on Hallowe'en, Saturday evening, at the hall. All report a jolly time.

A number of young folks from here attended the debate at Shook School Friday night.

Mr. Watson: "I should say so; my wife felt one in my money pocket once and thought it was a mouse."

Mr. Frank Biry is building a new home in Biry.

Eunice H.: "Who was the first one that came from the Ark when it landed?"

Leslie R.: "Noah, of course."

Eunice H.: "You are wrong. The Book tells us that Noah came forth?"

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Burnett and family have moved to Hondo. We were sorry to see them leave here.

John Crenmueller, Miss Carrie Langfield, Mr. Lea Wernette and Albina Crenmueller passed through here Sunday.

Our school is getting along nicely, with Mrs. Jennie Estes and Miss Annie McKeown as teachers.

DEFEATED CANDIDATE BOOSTS FOR GARNER.

John T. Briscoe of Devine, late candidate for Congress against John N. Garner, said last night he devoutly hopes later returns will show the House of Representatives to have gone Democratic. "In that event," said Briscoe, "I hope to see John Garner chosen either Majority Leader or Speaker of the House, just as he prefers. I said this much directly after the primary, and I meant it."

"If the House can be organized by the Democrats, as seems wholly possible, then it will be the duty and the pleasure of every Democrat in this state to rally to the aid of Garner. Though I ran against him for the nomination, I was his friend and am yet, and I said nothing for which either of us will ever be sorry. That's the way for Democrats to contest within the party for party honors. Whatever the outcome of the congressional elections, I want to see Garner leading the Democrats, a position for which he is eminently fitted."—Thursday's Express.

The Hondo National Farm Loan Association, H. E. Haas, Secretary-Treasurer, Hondo, Texas, representing 132 borrowers, with $503,280 borrowed, is prepared to make farm loans anywhere in Medina County under the Federal Farm Loan Act at 5 1/2 per cent interest and 1 per cent 33 year amortization repayment plan. Nineteen thousand Texas farmers have taken advantage of this system of borrowing over fifty million dollars. Why not you? Former restrictions have been taken off and you may borrow for any purpose provided for in the Act, as a farmer only.

DEVINE NEWSLETS.
From The Devine News.

The price of corn has gone up 50 per cent since our farmers began to harvest and sell, and is now a fair price; but the farmer who sells all he has and has to buy back next spring will pay $1.00 the bushel very likely. Keep back enough for home consumption; feed the chickens, pigs and cows, and you won't need so much from the store, or to make such a big store account.

The farmer who will have a real nice oat patch for his chickens, cows and horses to graze on in February and March will be glad he took advantage of the early fall rains to and three-tenths seconds.

Mrs. G. W. Lindsey sustained a fall one day the past week, hurting her side very badly, probably breaking some ribs. On account of her age it was rather a serious hurt.

Organize Wolf Club at Black Creek

A. A. Gates informs us that a wolf club has been organized in his neighborhood, and that about nine wolves had been caught up to Friday night. They pay $5 bounty on each wolf and the furs belong to the club, which will reduce the costs of catching. Mr. Gates says he has lost about 45 turkeys this year killed by the wolves, and many of his neighbors lost heavily in chickens and turkeys. With 20 members they figure each wolf would cost about 25 cents per member.

Location of Well Slightly Changed

After consulting with geologists and drillers, the new contractors for the Noonan well two and one-half miles west of town, moved the derrick about 300 feet and started for an entirely new well this week. Water from the first well, down about 400 feet, will be used in drilling with the big rotary rig. We understand that the new contract is for 3,500 feet, if paying oil is not struck before that depth. This will be the deepest test ever made in this section, anywhere, and there is much enthusiasm in oil circles. Negotiations have been resumed for a well east of town, but there is nothing for publication, we are told.

The Yancey Road Needs Work Badly

The editors went to Yancey Friday, via the straight road, which is very good to the Hondo River. West of the river we found several mud holes, and came back via Moore. The road from Yancey to Moore is very good; and we are hoping that the road west of the Hondo on the Devine road may soon be straightened and put in good shape. At present it is best to come and go via Moore, three or four miles farther, but a much better road.

H. H. S. ROMPS ON UVALDE HI.
Dutch-Irish Take Lead, Holding Uvalde Scoreless.
From the Huajillo Leaf.
Playing brilliant football, the light
H. H. S. eleven downed the heavier Uvalde High team on the gridiron
at Uvalde last Saturday by a score of 21 to 0. Stung by the defeat of the week before at the hands of Sabinal, the fighting Dutch-Irish took bloody revenge on Uvalde. Defeated, but not dishonored, the Uvalde boys fought like demons throughout the game, but they were never able to pierce the stone-wall defense put up by the H. H. linesmen.
Summary of play follows:
First Quarter
Uvalde received on their 25-yard line; gain 3 yards; thrown for 9-yard loss. Uvalde fumbles and Brucks covers ball for Hondo; Merriman gains 4 yards; Rothe gains 6 yards for first down; Windrow runs 25 yards around right end for first score; Tony drop-kicked extra point;
score 7-0.
Hondo kicks, Uvalde fumbles;
Rothe covers ball; time out for Merriman. Hondo fumbles; Rhiney recovers; pass from Windrow to Wilson gains 20 yards. Windrow fumbles; Uvalde covers.
Quarter ends with Uvalde third down, 12 yards to go. Score, Hondo
7, Uvalde 0.
Second Quarter.
Uvalde center overthrows; Neuman covers. Pass from Windrow to Wilson gains 20 yards; J. C. gains
3 yards off-tackle; pass from Windrow to Wilson nets second touchdown; Windrow drop-kicks for point;
score, 14-0.
Uvalde receives on 30 yard line.
Thrown for 13-yard loss by Davis.
Uvalde punts. Windrow receives and gains 13 yards. Bradley fumbles but recovers; Hondo punts;
Uvalde safety fumbles, Hondo covers.
Pass from Windrow to Ernest gains
15 yards; Windrow gains 15 yards around end; Bradley loses 4 yards;
two seconds to go, Windrow fails at attempt to drop-kick goal from 40-yard line. Half ends; score, Hondo
14, Uvalde 0.
Third Quarter.
Uvalde kicks, Windrow receives on Hondo's 5-yard line. Side-stepping his way, he makes a spectacular run of 55 yards, placing the ball at the point from where it was kicked.
Windrow gains 9 yards around end.
Uvalde intercepts pass. Gain 3 yards off-tackle; gain 4 yards thru line; thrown for 7 yard loss. Uvalde punts. Windrow returns punt 15 yards. Pass uncompleted; Hondo punts; Uvalde fumbles, Davis covers ball for Hondo. Windrow pulls off 40-yard run for touchdown. Windrow drop-kicks extra point. Score, 21-0.
Uvalde receives on 40-yard line;
fake loses 13 yards; Uvalde punts;
freak play of game comes when Wilson, end, receives punt and gains 10 yards, causing Uvalde to be thrown for 3 yard loss by punting.
Bradley gains 5 yards; quarter ends,
Hondo ball, second down, 25 yards from goal; score, Hondo 21, Uvalde 0.
Fourth Quarter.
The last period of the game was featureless. Uvalde held Hondo time after time, when their goal
was in danger, and neither side scored. On second down for Hondo, fake loses 3 yards. Attempted drop-kick fails; Davis recovers; Bradley gains 5 yards around end. Rhiney gains 2 yards through line; Windrow gains 20 yards around end; Rhiney gains 1 yard; J. C. gains 7 yards through line; Hondo loses 10 yards in attempt to pass; a second attempt to pass is blocked; ball goes over. Uvalde punts out of bounds; Hondo's ball; touchdown to go; fake loses 3 yards; Bradley gains 2 yards; Rhiney gains 5 yards around end;
drop-kick fails; Uvalde's ball. They punt; Windrow returns punt for 20 yards; sprains ankle when tackled;
game ends. Score, Hondo 21, Uvalde 0.
The game, though marred by numerous fumbles, was redeemed by the fighting spirit shown by both teams. Tony Windrow, Hondo's snappy little quarter, was the outstanding player of the game; his brilliant broken-field running and brainy headwork spelled victory for Hondo. The gamey fight put up by the H. H. S. team showed they possessed unconquerable souls. Davis and Neuman, both big men, played wonderful games at tackles, ruining Uvalde's formations before the play started. Wilson on the left wing position for Hondo, was ever ready at the receiving end of the pass formation. F. Johnson and T. Johnson, left end and half back, were stars
for Uvalde.

A Wish
"I HAVE TAKEN Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla.
"Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of Cardui and her condition was much better.
"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard on us.
"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work." This card fulfils her wish.

All parts of Medina county were represented by local politicians Wednesday. They had come in from the various election precincts to deliver the election returns. While a record vote was cast in most precincts, the election was otherwise extremely quiet.

The town will be closed up tight today, out of observance of Armistice Day. While Hondo did not attempt to arrange entertainment on the elaborate scale of former years, there is ample opportunity for diversion for those who are inclined to seek pleasure in amusements.

Medina county had ginned for the 1922 season prior to October 18th, 4,163 bales of cotton. Up to the same date in 1921, there had been ginned only 2,951 bales. The figures for the state are 2,644,294 bales for 1922 and 1,738,558 up to a like date in 1921. The cotton crop is no doubt practically out over the state.

Warm, moist weather is proving very beneficial to the ranges and fall grass is coming in abundance where ranges are not over-stocked. A few weeks' delay in the coming of frost will put the stockmen back in good shape in so far as range is concerned. Oats that were sowed after the October rains are up and growing nicely.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC-A. & M. AGRICULTURAL TRAIN TO BE A FAIR ON WHEELS.

The Southern Pacific-Texas A. & M. College Demonstration train will in reality be a moving Agricultural and Home Economic Exposition on wheels, according to J. I. McGregor, Agricultural Agent of the Southern Pacific Lines. Those in charge of the train have been very successful in getting the cream of the prize-winning livestock and agricultural exhibits from all the large fairs of the state, including the Dallas Fair, and the Waco Cotton Palace Exposition, for exhibition and demonstration on the train. Due to crop failures, wet weather, dry weather, and other conditions out of control of man, many of our farmers and their families were unable to attend any of the large fairs in the state, so one of the purposes of this train is to take the fair to the farmers and their families. In addition it will afford many rural high school agricultural students opportunity to see at first hand prize-winning stock and farm products, and also an opportunity to hear specialists from the Texas A. & M. College discuss these subjects. Each school superintendent in each town through which the train will pass is cordially invited to bring his school children down "en masse" and preference will be given them in going through the train and seeing the exhibits, and hearing the lectures. All members of the Boys and Girls Clubs in the different counties will be given special recognition, and every effort put forth to make their visit interesting and instructive.

The farm women are not forgotten. A special car has been set aside and is being equipped by the Home Demonstration Department at the A. & M. College to show all the modern conveniences that may be enjoyed in the farm home, and at no or very little additional cost, such as running water, kitchen equipment and arrangement, methods of cooking, preserving, sewing, making make-over garments, etc.

Then, of course, the farmer, as the father, husband and head of the house, is interested in all the departments. However, every effort is being made to make this train his inspiration and to arouse his enthusiasm for better farming.

[5 for $1.55] BAYLORITES ORGANIZE.

A locality club has recently been organized in Baylor for women, Belton, which includes as members all students within eighty-five miles of Uvalde. "The Huajillo Bunch" is the name adopted by the club. The following officers were elected at the first meeting of the club: President, Miss Georgia Carson, Rock Springs; Secretary-Treasurer, W. D. Bunton, Rio Frio; and reporter, Miss Jessie Tate, Uvalde.

The club has for its object the creation of a friendly spirit and association among students in Baylor College by girls of Southwest Texas. "The Huajillo Bunch" has the distinction of being the only locality club in Baylor College whose membership includes boys as well as girls.

The following are charter members of the club: Georgia Carson, Opal Sweeten, Maurine Sweeten and Bessie Zuberbuehler, from Rock Springs; Ophelia Petty, Christine Ferries and Jessie Tate from Uvalde; Jessie Burt Jeffreys and Mary O. Grissom from Carrizo Springs; Bertie Kelly from Con Can; Caro Fusselman from Hondo; Ruth Hicks from Tarpley; Leslie Howard from Devine; and Dick Burns and W. D. Bunton from Rio Frio. Miss Katherine Henderson, a former teacher of Uvalde High School, and at present a member of the faculty of Baylor College, was elected sponsor of the club.

SAYS PUBLIC READY TO BUY REAL VALUE.

Many More Prospects Closed Since Overland Makes Big Price Cuts.

There are many more prospective buyers of real motor car value at popular prices than even dealers had previously supposed, according to Paul Weynand, local Overland dealer.

Supporting this is cited the public's reaction to Overland's new low prices, which went into effect September 18th.

Sales of this car indicate that many prospective buyers had just been waiting for the latest value increase before making their investment.

Overland's all-steel body, real baked enamel finish and large, strong rear axle, are among the extreme values at the new low price which especially attract buyers.

These are new values on a popular priced light car, and have added appeal in view of the latest price reduction to $525 for Overland tourings and roadsters.

Overland is now the only car selling below $800 that has an all-steel body and real baked enamel finish. It is also the only light car using both Timken and New Departure bearings in a semi-floating rear axle, with axle shafts that are removable, as in high priced cars, without tearing down the housing.

Southwestern Division
Looks After Soldiers

Cross Workers in That Section
Assist, Care For and Entertain
Men in Camps and Hospitals.

Approximately 30,000 able-bodied solders and more than 5,000 Invalided
solders and ex-service men in the hospitals in the United States have been aid in obtaining compensation and solution of their other problems by the American Red Cross, according to J. H. Transue, director of war service of the Southwestern Division of the American Red Cross.

Red Cross workers in the camps
and hospitals in the Southwestern Division are rendering much-needed service to the men who are in the army at present time," said Transue. "The service men undergoing hospitalization for one cause or another ex-service men who have been hospitalized both in the army hospitals
operated by the Veterans' Bureau, are some of the men
aid of this service.

The army camps and hospitals in the division covered by Red Cross workers are located at Jefferson Bar,
St. Louis, Mo.; Camp Travis,
including Ft. Sam Houston Hospital, Ft. Bliss, Tex.; including Wm.
Beaumont General Hospital; Ft.
Lawrence, Kan.; including the U.
S. Military Hospital at that point;
Ft. Riley, Kan.; Ft. Sill, Okla.; Fitz-
simons General Hospital, Fitzsimons,
Camp Furlong, New Mex.;
Harry J. Jones, Douglas, Ariz.;
the Army and Navy General Hospital at Hot Springs, Ark.

The Veterans' Bureau hospitals
aid by the Southwestern Division of Red Cross are: U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 35, St. Louis, Mo.; Veterans' Hospital No. 25, Logan, Tex.; Veterans' Hospital No. 55, Ft.
Wadsworth, N. Mex.; U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 67, Kansas City, Mo.; U. S.
Veterans' Hospital No. 78, N. Little Rock, Ark.; and U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 80, Fort Lyon, Colo.

Of the 5,000 patients, approximately 100 are undergoing treatment for tuberculosis and mental diseases. This makes the work one of great difficulty, inasmuch as it is a real problem to provide recreation or to connect the present condition with his service.

There are three phases of the Red Cross program for service and ex-service men in the camps and hospitals: Home Service, Recreation and Social Service. Our regular service program consists of what is known as home service work. This is for co-operation between the Red Cross worker in the camp and governmental and chapter agencies in taking care of problems of the enlisted man in the army. Difficulties relating to pensions, allowances, insurance, community, state bonus, travel pay, etc., all brought to the Red Cross by the enlisted man. The Red Cross also helps the families through the chaplain case of distress, sickness or death.

The recreational and entertainment program in the hospital brings movies
to the boys, amateur theatricals, sports, parties and those many other things that the sick man longs for, but which he could not have were it not for the Red Cross.

The Red Cross medical and social service program calls for a study of the individual needs of the man, to help him
bring his personal and family difficulties to him without resources, to the doctor in his treatment of the man by obtaining former medical histories which may lead to correct diagnosis and to interpret the whole situation to the Red Cross service worker in the home community, so that not only the proper attention be given to the family during the man's absence, but he may be free in mind and derive a maximum amount of benefit from his treatment.

Carrying out our work for the service man undergoing hospitalization the Red Cross has constantly in mind that the great object is to play the right part in the life of adjustment through which the service man must safely pass if he is to continue to be a good citizen.
Work has required personnel who not only sympathetic in the dealing with patients but who must have understanding of the social problems of the time.

As it has always been recognized that the time spent in a government hospital is only a brief episode in the life of a patient, so has it been recognized that the activities of hospital workers are only a part of the responsibility of the Red Cross to the service man; that the hospital
can be successful only as it cooperates itself closely with the work of the Red Cross as a whole. The hospital worker is the outpost detailed to the present condition of the man in the hospital to the home people as each of us, as individuals, and the men who marched away
to service, as each one of us helped keep the home fires burning while the boys served in the front line of the war, so does it become our duty to render a very definite service to these men, who are still fighting
the great battle of humanity, begun in 1917, and in which to date no truce has been declared. Through the Red Cross you are helping them win the peace.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 1.

Knowing that it will not be possible to thank personally each of my supporters in the recent election, I have adopted this means of extending to them my appreciation. Words are inadequate to express my gratitude to all of those who voted for me and especially those who worked so untiringly for my success. The vote of confidence so overwhelmingly given to me amply repays me for the hard and untiring effort on my part to discharge the important duty of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 of Medina County during the past, and I now pledge to the people of this precinct that I will be true to the trust imposed in me and will do my full duty to the best of my ability during the term for which I have now been elected.

Very sincerely yours,
H. F. BUSS.

I hereby express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my friends who supported and voted for me and stood so loyally by me last Tuesday. I have no regrets, neither do I carry any resentment or malice in my heart against anyone. I express my best wishes to Judge Noonan and he shall have my co-operation in everything that may redound to the betterment of Hondo and Medina county.

Respectfully,
H. E. HAASS.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MEDINA COUNTY.

I have adopted this means of thanking the voters of Medina county collectively and individually for my re-election to the office of County Judge. I fully realize the responsibility vested in me and will do everything in my power to give the people of this county an efficient administration during the coming two years.

To those who cast their vote for me I feel very grateful, and to those true and loyal friends who worked for my re-election I want to say that I hope the time will come when I can show them how deeply I appreciate what they have done for me.

Yours to serve,

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO RUN DEMONSTRATION TRAIN.

Realizing the importance of co-operation between the commercial interests and rural communities in agricultural and livestock production, and conscious of the relation of improved agricultural production to community, county, state and national welfare, the Southern Pacific System has made arrangements of an educational demonstration train to tour their Texas Lines from November 21 to December 12 under the direction of competent instructors from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, according to announcement made today by J. I. McGregor, agricultural agent of the Southern Pacific System in Texas.

Mr. G. A. ... Director of Exhibits of the A. M. College of Texas, will be in charge of the exhibits on the train, while Dr. W. B. Bizzell, President of the College, T. O. Walton, Director of Extension Service, and A. B. Connor, Assistant Director of the Texas Experiment Stations, have made arrangements for the specialists and professors of the College to render assistance and advice in the selection of exhibits suitable for the tour, while at the same time competent authorities will be present throughout the trip to intelligently explain the relation of the exhibits to improved agricultural prosperity.

The best prize-winning livestock will be assembled on the tour, while livestock judging will be exemplified for the instruction of visitors to the train. Field crops from the best county and state exhibits will also be displayed, and general information will be furnished through experienced lecturers regarding the advantages of improved agricultural production. Neither has the rural home been overlooked, since prize-winning exhibits of cooking, canning, sewing, etc., will be present and competent authorities will take pleasure in explaining their relation to improved home life.

The train will consist of eleven cars, as follows:

One palace car containing dairy and beef cattle; one palace car for sheep and hogs; one coach—seats removed for poultry; one flat exhibition lecture car—wire fence and canvas top; two coaches—seats removed—farm exhibits; one coach—seats removed—home demonstration car—exhibition for the women—canning exhibits of cooking, sewing, etc.; one coach—seats removed—Texas Experiment Station exhibits; one coach with seats—indoor lecture car; one combination sleeping and dining car, and one baggage car, containing feed, baggage, herdsman, etc.

The train will start at Beaumont November 21, and run over the T. & N. O. to Dallas, at which place it will be run over the H. & T. C. north of Dallas, thence south and east to Hempstead, thence west to Austin, return to Houston, from whence the train will be run over the G. H. & S. A. through San Antonio to Uvalde, where they will turn back and run over the Victoria line to Beasley, thence into Houston, and over the H. E. & W. T.

Definite stops have not been arranged, owing to the clamor from towns along the lines represented, and Mr. McGregor says that stops will be determined by interest on the part of the people along the route, it being the purpose of the tour to reach as many people as possible where the greatest benefit will be derived on the part of the rural communities in the territory covered by the Southern Pacific System in Texas.

A basketball game was played at 4 o'clock in the afternoon between Yancey and Big Foot teams. Yancey came out victorious by a score of 11 to 10.

YANCEY WINS FROM BIGFOOT.

On Friday, November 3, 1922, Bigfoot was forced to the small end of a 10 to 11 score by the Yancey basketball team. The game was hard-fought from the first whistle to the last. All through the first and most of the last period Bigfoot outfought their opponents and kept a narrow lead hanging over their heads. Due to the fact that Dixon, for Bigfoot, was disqualified for personal fouls, and that Raditzky, a sub forward, carried new life and pep into the game, Yancey was able to overcome the lead and nose out her opponents by the narrow margin of one point.

A story of the game would be incomplete without mentioning the brilliant work of Oefinger for Yancey and Dixon and Bush for Bigfoot.

The game was played on the day of the community fair, and the crowd attending the game was the largest ever known to attend a basketball game at Yancey.

Notice, To Hunters!

We, the undersigned citizens of Medina County, have organized the Medina County Game Protective Association.

The object of this Association is to protect the game, to enforce the game laws generally, and also forbid trespassing on our lands.

Most of the counties north of here have already organized for this purpose and in those counties the game is increasing in number each year, while in this county it is decreasing, and will continue to decrease until we begin to enforce the law in regard to hunting out of season, and following the law regulating hunting in season.

The members of this Association wish to serve notice on the public that there will be no hunting allowed on any of our premises without a written permit from the land owner or from whoever may be in charge of such premises.

This is for the protection of the land owners and also for the protection of the hunter who will respect the law.

There are present 22 members of this Association and we will employ two game wardens to look after this business and as the membership grows we will employ others. We ask all parties, hunters as well as land owners, to co-operate with us in the protection of game in Medina County.

On the first day of November the lands owned by the members of this Association will all be posted according to law, and any and all permits to hunt thereon heretofore issued are hereby cancelled.

ADDS BILLION TO THE WEALTH OF THE SOUTH.

Some few of the larger bolls had five locks, all full of fluffy, white clusters of the seed and lint.

Mebane found that some plants were shorter, stockier, and tougher than others. As a rule the plants of those days were tall, slender, frail, with a vast amount of leaves which shaded the bolls from the sun. Strange to say, the roots were short—so short in fact that they were inadequate to sustain the plant through dry spells, so common during the summer months in the South.

In his mind he pictured an ideal plant—with long roots, sinking deep into the ground, so as to suck in the moisture beneath the surface of the hard, baked, dry fields; next in importance was the plant itself. He pictured a short, stocky plant, with tough joints, and few leaves. His ideal plant was one that would devote all its growing power to the fruit, or cotton, rather than to the plant itself.

Selecting the plants which came nearest to reaching his ideal he carefully preserved the seed from them for planting the coming season. Day after day he roamed through his extensive plantation searching carefully for the plants that most nearly approached his mental picture of an ideal plant. Alone and unaided he carried out his work, often laughed at by his neighbors who were unable to comprehend or understand his tenacity and painstaking care in finding the best plants.

The lint in one of the average cotton bolls weighs approximately one-tenth of an ounce. Thousands upon thousands of these bolls were gathered, weighed, and examined with minute care. An accurate record of the weight, percentage of cotton, and percentage of seed was kept for each boll that was above the average in size, or that in any way excelled other bolls.

Every plant that was selected as being in some way better than the average was carefully described in a written record. Every detail of the plant—roots, joints, branches, leaves and fruit—was noted in detail in the record.

When Mebane began to select and record the facts it was necessary for a farmer to bring 1,800 to 2,000 pounds of the seed cotton to the gin to obtain a 500-pound bale of lint. The cotton as picked from the fields contains the seed. The seeds were worthless except as a feed for cattle. Millions of tons of them were destroyed every year. Laws were enacted to prevent farmers from dumping them into streams or otherwise disposing of them so as to injure others. They had not even thought of using the seed as fertilizer.

After several years of work Mr. Mebane successfully concluded the experiments which have brought a billion dollars to cotton growers. Mebane for years sought to increase the amount of cotton and decrease the amount of seed. The contents of a boll or pod of cotton were but 25 to 30 per cent cotton, the balance seed. Today the average of 42 per cent lint makes a difference of $5 to $15 a bale in the value of the crop.

To select the bolls that contained the highest percentage of lint, Mebane weighed on apothecary scales thousands of bolls of cotton. He computed the exact percentage of lint to the minutest fraction of an ounce. Year after year he selected and planted the seed from the bolls that contained the most lint. It was an endless task—thankless, and seemingly hopeless for several years, as the progress was slow. Infinite patience was required for the tedious work of going over, weighing, recording, and describing the characteristics of thousands of bolls each year. But finally an improvement was noted. Year by year the percentage of lint increased. Year by year the stalks of cotton gradually grew smaller, the roots increased in length, and the joints were stockier and tougher. His work was beginning to show results. Neighbors began to marvel at his cotton, and to inquire into his methods.

In 1900, after more than 15 years of ceaseless labor, his fame began to spread. The United States Government sent its agents to learn his methods. Farmers began paying a premium for planting seed grown by Mr. Mebane. Mebane cotton was taking hold. He started exhibiting his cotton at fairs. The skeptics were slowly admitting that Mebane was right, and that his cotton was better than the average.

By 1900 his cotton had been developed to where it "turned out" about one-third lint and two-thirds seed. This was considered marvelous by the cotton growers at the time. But today the lint "turn-out" is from 40 to 42 per cent. Although the seed is no longer destroyed, the lint remains by long odds as the most valuable portion of the crop. Today a cotton plant is considered extremely large when it is waist high. When he started his work the average man could hide standing up in a cotton field. Instead of raising large plants the farmer of today raises cotton and cotton seed, thanks to this man Mebane.

To the farmer this means a plant that will not whip in the wind, or throw the cotton out in the fields to fall and rot. The Mebane Triumph has long roots, that sink themselves deep, fortifying itself against protracted drouths. These benefits, however, are incidental. The big value of Mebane's work comes in the increase of lint production.

The farmer who formerly took 1,800 to 2,000 pounds of seed cotton to the gin and came away with only 500 pounds of lint, may now take but 1,200 pounds of seed cotton to the gin and still come away with a 500-pound bale of lint.

Yet with all these benefits Mebane does not consider his work done. Visit his plantation today and you will find him at work among his cotton stalks.

Vast plots, each containing a slightly different variety of cotton, are scattered over his fields. The main fields are, of course, planted each year from seed from the best of the preceding year's crop, but not content to rest, Mebane gathers each year the bolls that seem to have in some way departed from the original. These are planted for experimentation. They are carefully watched for any new characteristic. He is always looking for the unusual, an improvement or a change.

For several years Mebane has devoted considerable time and thought to increasing the length of the cotton fiber. Length of the staple is always a factor in determining the price.

One of the first to recognize the value of Mr. Mebane's work was the late Dr. S. A. Knapp, of the Department of Agriculture. It was Knapp who first called Mebane cotton a triumph. He suggested to Mebane that it be called Mebane Triumph—and so it was. It is indeed a triumph—a triumph of work, thought and patience—a triumph that has left prosperity in its wake, that has paved roads, built schoolhouses and churches. It has rescued millions of women and children from the drudgery of farm work, it has paid mortgages, brought automobiles and electric lights to regions in the South where prosperity was a stranger in years gone by.

From the little town of Lockhart hundreds of carloads of Mebane seed are shipped every year to all points in the cotton-growing regions.

Years ago Mr. Mebane was urged to take steps to protect his name—to do something to prevent other farmers—some of the unscrupulous—from growing and selling inferior seeds and passing them off as pure Mebane seed. But rather than do anything that might hinder the improvement of cotton he hesitated, only to see thousands of tons of seed sold each year to farmers as genuine Mebane cotton seed, but which are not.

Others have perhaps profited as much or more in dollars and cents from Mebane's work than he has himself, but Mebane is the type of man that works for an ideal rather than for gain. Rich in the esteem of his fellow townsmen, loved, honored and looked up to by them, he is content to search for still better methods of growing and improving cotton, rather than search for more dollars, or more acres of land.

Adds a Billion to the Wealth of the South.
Texas Farmer, by Evolving New Cotton Variety, Aids Growers.

A. D. MEBANE
And the Mebane Triumph variety of Cotton

One afternoon in the early eighties a Texas farmer went into his cotton fields to determine the damage wrought by a violent rain and wind-storm. Over the state other farmers did the same. Many, no doubt, cursed their "hard luck." None did anything about it except this one man. While examining and estimating the damage, an idea came to him that has since been conservatively estimated to have saved the southern farmers more than a billion dollars—rather, it has added more than a billion dollars to their income.

That man was A. D. Mebane, of Lockhart, Texas, now famous over the cotton-growing country as the originator of Mebane Triumph Cotton, a variety of cotton that produces an unusually large percentage of lint. More than that it is known as a cotton that will stand a drouth longer than others, as well as stand up under violent winds, when other varieties are practically ruined by windstorms.

On that stormy afternoon Mebane was inspired to believe that he could improve cotton by using the age-old theory of the survival of the fittest. With him, to think meant to act, so he made a thorough examination of the stalks of cotton that appeared to have suffered the least damage from the rain and wind. This examination revealed the fact that the lint in some of the bolls had scarcely been disturbed, while on other stalks the lint had been blown out over the fields, and ruined. He proceeded to collect all stalks that withstood the damage.

That night he started writing a description of the hardest plants. A minute description of every boll, or pod, was written. Cotton when ready to be gathered is found hanging loosely in the bolls or pods, which are divided into four or five partitions, or locks, as the cotton men speak of them. In those days practically all the bolls had but four locks. (Continued on last page)

SETTLING UP TIME.

Another harvest season has rolled around, and the time for settling up annual accounts is here. In making your settlements do not forget the paper. It costs money to run a paper and printers must have money or, like other people, go hungry. Call at the office and settle your account or remit by letter. Do not wait for a statement—but a statement will be mailed you if desired. Remember, time flies and a neglected subscription account mounts up fast and if allowed to run too long will surprise you with its size. So please wait no longer but pay up now.

Yours in grateful anticipation of an early settlement.
